

Paid Opportunity

for People Living with HIV/AIDS (PHAs)

6 Project Assistants are needed from across Atlantic Canada to get ready to do the “Canadian HIV Stigma Index” (a survey by and for PHAs)

We are looking for Project Assistants (PAs) who are PHAs living in NS, PEI, NB, or NL. Additionally, we hope to hire at least one PHA who identifies as African, Caribbean or Black, and one PHA who identifies as Indigenous (APHA).

Tasks

- Reach out and connect with other PHAs
- Talk to PHAs about the HIV Stigma Index & why it's important
- Encourage PHAs to attend an info session on the Stigma Index
- Respect individual confidentiality

Please apply if you:

- Are able to commit 20 – 40 hours (between February 1 – March 31)
- Know OR are willing to learn about the “HIV Stigma Index”
- Know and want to connect with other PHAs from different backgrounds, including:
  - ✓ Men who have sex with men (MSM), transgender people, people who use drugs (PWUD), persons who identify as African, Caribbean and Black (ACB), and Indigenous Peoples Living with HIV/AIDS (APHAs)

Resumes or CVs are NOT needed

Please send a letter (one page max) explaining your interest to michael.liddell@dal.ca

For questions or to contact Michael by phone: (902) 669-0565

Deadline to apply: January 31 (4 pm AST)
